Reconsideration Of Sunday Sports Bill To Be Asked

Almost Certain That Senator John J. McClure, To Ask Reconsideration

SENATOR BRANDT MAY CHANGE VOTE

Belief Exists That Schwartz
Bill Will Be Passed By
Legislators Tuesday

HARRISBURG, Mar. 17.—With the door to Sabbath sports during the approaching summer closed to them, liberal leaders in Pennsylvania's Assembly today massed their strength to gain the next best concession—Sunday football next fall and baseball in 1934 and thereafter. This is possible under the Schwartz bill amendments proposed by Senator John J. McClure, who plans to ask on Monday night for a reconsideration of the vote by which the blue law modifier was defeated in the state Senate, 26 to 24.

Leaders on both sides of the question have little doubt but that the reconsideration will be granted, perhaps even by a unanimous vote. A majority vote of the 50 senators is all that is necessary, provided that another member, originally voted "no" seconds McClure's motion. Those voting for a second roll call would not thereby be pinned down to vote "aye" on the bill itself.

Liberals Confident

Modificationists believe the proposed changes will bring more of the upstate senators into the affirmative line.

With the amendments incorporated, the second test could be held next Tuesday. Debate would be limited to five minutes under the rules. If defeated again the bill would be automatically dead for the session. McClure proposes two referenda at (Continued On Page Two)

PA NEW C OBSERVES

Today Is St. Patrick's Day!

Old currency is coming out of hiding even in New Castle and Lawrence county. Pa. New saw some of the old time larger bills that were in circulation today. There is no reason for hoarding currency now, and the bills that have been hidden are coming back into circulation.

The heavy rains of the past few days have washed off the streets, and the terrain generally, giving a much refreshed look to New Castle and the surrounding territory. The high water stage in the rivers has also cleared the rivers of accumulated debris.

A man driving down South Mill street early yesterday afternoon evidently was not acquainted with the very first rule of automobile etiquette. He drove his car splash through a large puddle of muddy water and two pedestrians were the innocent victims of his thoughtlessness.

An expansive pane of glass in the store window of a south side furniture concern was broken yesterday. In order that there would be no danger to passersby while repair work was done, a barricade was erected in front of the window on the sidewalk.

The huge pile of ashes, which the city had stored on the vacant plot at the foot of Mercer street, is rapidly diminishing. The ashes are now being hauled to various dirt streets in the city to put them in good shape for the spring and summer.

June days may be rare, but there's nothing like a nice bright spring day, after the snow and ice of winter, to put tonic in a fellow's veins.

Pa. New observed an automobile stalled just about in the middle of (Continued On Page Two)

Ready For Operations At Neshannock Falls Quarries On Big Scale

With the return of better weather the work of getting out the stone for the rripping of the Espsville-Anndor highway across the Pymatunng dam, will start at Neshannock Falls. The winches, steam shovels, derricks and booms are in place in the old Neshannock Stone company quarries several experienced stone men are on the job making preparations for the work, the spur siding is laid, and the weather is the only remaining hindrance to starting the job of getting out 100,000 tons of stone.

E. C. Waldman, foreman for the Bates & Rodgers company, who are building the highway across the dam has arrived on the job and is supervising the preliminary work. C. T. Smith, superintendent for the construction company, was in the quarry Thursday afternoon and said that they were waiting now for all the frost to leave the ground. Another factor is the condition of the earth at the dam, which at the present time is wet and soggy.

To Rush Work.
"Once the weather gets good, we will rush the work of taking out the stone," said Mr. Smith. "If possible we will use two shifts of 35 men each to get out the stone, and if this is not possible we will use about 70 men on the daylight shift. All the men we employ must be experienced (Continued On Page Two)

Colorful Parade In New York Today For St. Patrick's Honor

Estimate 20,000 Sons Of Erin Will Take Part In Gigantic Parade

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—Twenty thousand loyal sons of Erin donned bright shamrocks and green sashes, 300 dignitaries polished their silk hats, and half a dozen bands rehearsed "the wearing of the green" and two score other Irish ditties today in preparation for this afternoon's gala event—New York's annual St. Patrick's day parade.

With only a few cumulo-nimbus and other miscreant clouds daring to cast a shadow on the day of days an almost perfect setting for the colorful procession up Fifth avenue was assured for the gallant lads from Cork, Clare, Kerry, Tipperary, Leinster, Tyrone, and Monaghan. Flags of the Emerald Isle were lovingly brought forth and dusted off, and we bet the unlucky citizen who should be so brash as to don an orange cravat.

Lots Of Music

There was plenty of music in the air, with the fife and drum corps, Irish pipers and cadets' bands on the job with sets of lungs like leather. And the ladies' auxiliaries were there too, by the dozen.

Grand Marshal Roderick J. Kennedy, 86 years young and capable of whipping his weight in linens, said everything was in readiness for the gala event. And he ought to know, for he's been chairman of the parade committee these last 32 years.

In the reviewing stand at 54th street were to be Mayor John P. O'Brien, Postmaster General James A. Farley, John F. Curry, police commissioner Mulrooney and Al Smith himself, in addition to scores of other notables. Prominent members of the clergy were placed in another reviewing stand at St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Metropolitan marchers were augmented by delegations from Philadelphia, Stamford, Conn., and other nearby cities.

Celebrations will be held tonight throughout the city by Celtic organizations, and it was predicted that all snakes in these parts would be well beyond the state's borders by midnight, if not before.

Ohio River Is 52 Feet Today At Pomeroy, O.

Flood Waters Surge Over Two-Thirds Of Business Section Of Pomeroy

(International News Service)
POMEROY, O., Mar. 17.—Surging over two-thirds of Pomeroy's main street, flood waters of the Ohio river, which was expected to reach a crest stage of 52 feet before night-fall, threatened serious damage here today.

Several business establishments have been evacuated. Among them was the telegraph office, which was forced to move back to higher ground where a temporary station was set up. The first concern forced out of business when the river broke over its banks was town's only movie emporium.

The flood waters this morning passed the 50-level and were continuing to rise. It was expected that the crest of the flood would be reached sometime this afternoon.

WILL ROGERS says:

(Special To The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Mar. 17.—The millennium (whatever that is) has arrived, on a senate vote on economy. Only thirteen senators voted that they could run the country better than the president. Among 'em Huey Long and Champ Clark. California passed the racing bill. Maybe Texas, the greatest horse raising state in the union, will allow one to run for his oats.

Beer is coming back; wine is coming back; Greta Garbo is coming back; Sister Aimee is coming back.

Senators' salaries cut 15 per cent; that's fair. Movie salaries cut 50 per cent; not so hot. Newspaper columnists' salaries cut; that's a crime. Stage comedians' salaries cut; that ain't fair. But if Roosevelt says it is, why it's O. K.

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—The strong arm of the House Democratic organization was called into action today to send the beer bill to conference with the Senate over objections of the drys.

A special rule was reported out by the rules committee asking for a conference with the Senate and was to be called up during the afternoon.

Under the procedure, a two-thirds vote was necessary for action today. Otherwise the rule would have to lie over until tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—The administration's drive to legalize beer struck a temporary snag in the house today when drys refused to permit the measure to go to conference with the senate by unanimous consent.

The Democratic leaders will be forced to invoke the aid of their rules committee to put the measure in conference to settle differences between senate and house.

The action came after Rep. Byrns of Tennessee, majority leader, announced that friends of the house bill had agreed to demand a conference because of the senate amendment reducing the alcoholic percentage from 3.2 to 3.05 per cent.

With the senate in recess until Monday, final congressional action was impossible before that time and a fight in conference would delay it still more.

STATE MUST SPEED ACTION ON BEER CONTROL MEASURE

By JOSEPH A. LOFTUS
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
HARRISBURG, Mar. 17.—The spectacle of potent brew flowing virtually uncontrolled in Pennsylvania was the possibility that loomed today.

Unless the legislature moves swiftly and enacts the beer control bill to be introduced Monday night, or some other restrictive measures, there will be nothing under state law to stop up the suds channels when federal statute legalizes the beverage.

Meanwhile, the commonwealth and its subdivisions would be deprived of the millions of dollars of revenue anticipated in the form of license fees from brewers and retailers.

Speedy congressional action has converted the state control measure into practically emergency legislation, wet leaders believe. If the national beer bill reaches President Roosevelt and is signed by next Monday, as anticipated at Washington, the General Assembly will have barely enough time to rush a highly controversial control measure to enactment.

Fifteen days after the federal bill is signed it becomes law. That would make beer legal April 4. In the interim the legislature, under the three-day-week schedule, would be in session only seven days. The mechanics of legislation required not less than five days to enact a bill and that speed is rarely attained except in emergency cases.

CHICAGO, Mar. 17.—Buying orders for wheat, corn and other grains flooded the floor of the Board of Trade today in the wake of sensational price advances which added an estimated $100,000,000 to the value of farm commodities on the opening day of trading.

Restrictions which limited prices advances in yesterday's buying spree were to be lifted at the close of trading today.

The rapid rise carried wheat up five cents a bushel, corn three, oats two, rye five and barley three.

Cotton ended the day with appreciations ranging from $3 to $3.50 per bale here.

Body Found Near Auto On Mercer-New Wilmington Road

(BULLETIN, 2:30 P. M.)

H. T. Getty, cashier of the First National Bank of New Wilmington, was found shot to death about 1 p. m. today along the New Wilmington-Mercer highway about two and one-half miles south of Mercer. A note was found in the front seat of his automobile.

According to reports, Getty went in his automobile to the place. He got out of the car and the bullet that killed him lodged in the side of his head.

The gun was still clutched in his hand.

According to state police of Mercer, a farmer found the body. He hurried to the state police.

Police Notified.
He told them that the body was along the Mercer-New Wilmington highway about two and one half miles from Mercer. The farmer said he thought he recognized the man as "Getty of New Wilmington." State Police Sergeant Bergin immediately dispatched Patrolman Eben to the scene of the suicide.

He found the man dead and sent word to Bergin to send the corner of Mercer county to the scene.

Mr. Getty had taken off his hat, and glasses, and left them in his auto, then stepped out of the car, and apparently shot himself. A note was found in the car, which it is said explains the cause of the action.

Mr. Getty had long been connected with the First National bank of New Wilmington.

The death has created a sensation in the northern end of the county. Mr. Getty was about fifty years of age.

Blond Perfection Disputed On Broadway As Old And Modern Hair Dress Both Win Can You Decide Between the Beauty of These Night Club Girls?

By PAUL HARPER
Central Press Correspondent
NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—What is blond perfection?

Does it naturally follow that the "most beautiful blond" must possess long wavy tresses filled with golden light and tints?

Or may she wear her flaxen ringlets coiled tightly over her ears in a boyish bob and still be eligible for the title?

Broadway desires to know.

Both Held Title
The question of bobbed blonds acquired New York's attention recently when beautiful Betty Real and alluring Emily Fabian, each representing diametrically different schools of hair dress, were discovered to possess at the same time the title of "most beautiful blond of Broadway's night clubs."

Betty Real is vivacious, bubbling over with youthful sprightliness and charm. And she has long undulating hair that shimmers down over her slim shoulders.

Emily Fabian is tall, sophisticated and stately. She is swankily mysterious, soft-spoken and reserved in her actions. She wears her blond tresses combed tightly against her well-shaped head and not a single errant curl ever falls below her ears. And she, too, has been judged New York's most beautiful blond.

The question, therefore, resolves itself as to whether blond loveliness depends upon long wavy hair—or upon personality and charm, aside from the tresses themselves.

Artists Can't Decide.
Not whether Emily is more entrancing than Betty or vice versa—that would be a choice far too difficult to undertake.

Artists and photographers—usually the court of last appeals in matters of feminine pulchritude—are divided in this case.

It remains, however, that the girls—who dance in Broadway cabarets—are wholly different in style and coiffure, in personality and in individuality. And they're both "New York's Most Beautiful Blondes!"

PUSH NATIONAL JOB RELIEF PLANS

New Relief Plan To Be Discussed

Legislative Delegation Seeks To Confer With Roosevelt's Advisors

WOULD CREATE NATIONAL FUND

Aim Of New Plan Is To Get Back To Work On Rehabilitation Projects

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Mar. 17.—A Pennsylvania legislative delegation today sought a white house conference in its endeavor to coordinate a federal-state work relief plan designed to eliminate "pauperized relief."

Originally proposed by Edgar J. Kaufmann, Pittsburgh department store owner, the plan would provide a national fund from which self-liquidating relief work could be dispensed. Property owners could make loans for rehabilitation and repair projects. The aim is an immediate increase in employment. Repayment of the loans over an extended period would be allowed.

Plan Conference
Kaufmann enlisted the sympathy of Pennsylvania's general assembly and three house members were named to accompany him to Washington where they expect to work out details with federal officials whereby the state would co-ordinate its relief efforts with the national government. No state legislation to cover it has been introduced as yet.

Rep. P. B. Rice, Harrisburg, chairman of the house unemployment committee, has asked for a conference tomorrow with Prof. Raymond Moley, advisor to President Roosevelt. Kaufmann already has discussed his plan with Moley.

The group also is anxious to talk over the proposals with Senator Reed, Pennsylvania, Senator Wagner, New York, and Senator LaFollette, Wisconsin, who are understood to favor the principles put forward by Kaufmann.

Reps. Wilson G. Sarig, Berks Democrat, and Rep. Arnold Blumberg, Philadelphia Republican were the others named to accompany Rice and Kaufmann.

READY TO OPERATE NESHANNOCK FALLS QUARRIES AT ONCE

stone men and we believe that practically all the stone men we need can be found in and around Neshannock Falls.

"We will use nothing but local men," said Mr. Smith, "but it is hardly likely that we will be able to use many men who live very far from Neshannock Falls. Once a man is hired and demonstrates that he is a stone man, we will keep him on the job. Because of the close figure upon which this contract is based, we could not afford to stagger the employment and use a group of men for a few weeks and then hire new ones."

"If we do have need for labor from New Castle and other parts of the county, we expect to work thru R. L. Meermans, who represents the department of labor and industry. I trust that men who are not experienced in stone work will not take the trouble to come to Neshannock Falls looking for work as we cannot possibly use them."

Work Till Fall
"The work of getting out this stone will probably take until the latter part of November," continues Mr. Smith. "The stone must be dimensioned and the operations will be bench operations along the side of the stone cliffs. The stone will be 18 and 24 inches thick, with a fairly uniform size as to length and width. When completed the job of ripparing the sides of the highway will be a workmanlike job, one that the state can be proud of."

The quarry from which this stone is being taken is located north of the Neshannock Falls park. To those acquainted with stone the quality of Neshannock stone is well known. Opened in 1901 the quarry has furnished stone for a lot of well known jobs in this section of the country.

The First U. P. church is constructed of it. Old Main at Westminster college is built of it, the South Mill street bridge and the South Jefferson street bridge piers are built from it, high schools and homes in Pittsburgh, Dormont, Aspinwall and other suburbs have been built of it.

The bridge at Hazel Dell is of Neshannock stone, and the piers and retaining walls of the huge Ohio connecting bridge in Pittsburgh are built of it.

High Silica Content.
The stone is approximately 97 per cent silica and builders who know stone are wondering why the new postoffice in New Castle will not be built of this stone. It is unusually heavy, running about 158 pounds to the cubic foot and has withstood the test of the elements for 30 years.

The total contract of 100,000 tons of stone for the Pymatuning road will mean approximately 2000 car loads to be taken away from the quarry, an immense order and from now until late in November Neshannock Falls will be a busy spot.

Newc has noted of late that people are placing small fences about their front lawns in order that they might protect the new shoots of grass which are springing up very fast. This is a good idea for pedestrians will insist in stepping on the lawns.

To awaken to a morning such as that of today would cause any member of the Newc family or any of you New Castleites to feel like a million dollars. Cares and worries seem to melt into thin air when old man sunshine sends his warm rays down upon us.

Young Pa Newc discovered one of those signs of spring yesterday when he found a potato bug. It wasn't a dead one either but very much alive.

Attorney General William A. Schnader already has said that unless there is a new state law nothing exists in Pennsylvania to prevent anybody from going into the beer business.

The house liquor control commission, headed by Rep. Clinton Sowers, Philadelphia, plans to introduce the beer control measure Monday night. Announcement of the various features placed in the tentative draft of the bill has already created keen controversy. That this fight will be carried into legislative halls appeared inevitable. Indefinite delay in passing the bill would result.

WHEN MOTHER'S AWAY

Mother's away, just for the night. She's visiting her folk. Father's staying with the children, just for this night. He told her not to worry, not to give a thought to them. They'd be all right, nothing would happen. He and the kids would have an easy time of it. . . . He could handle it all right. Hasn't he gone camping many a time? Wasn't he in the war? Hasn't he many a time, cooked many a meal for himself? Women needn't think they're so necessary—just run along and enjoy yourself, dear.

Well, nothing does go wrong. Not obviously, anyway. They're all very jolly, he and the kids. And the kids are angels. They help, and they all make jokes. Father makes jokes, preposterous ones, and the children laugh and act silly, too. They are cheerfully impudent to him. They say things they wouldn't ordinarily dare to say at all.

They laugh at his awkwardness. The howl at the mistakes he makes. All talk at once while they're eating dinner. They put their elbows on the table, gesture with forks, talk while they have food in their mouths and father doesn't say a word. He's making a hit with the kids. They like him and he likes them, and at the same time he has a hunch they're doing things they aren't supposed to do. . . . Then they wash the dishes, and they get everything done in a great hurry, everybody helping. (Only one glass is broken, but that might happen to anybody. A certain little girl was acting "silly," but it was partly father's fault. He started it, so he's to blame, too. And he knows he is.)

They play a game of cards together and they listen to the radio, and finally he gets both of them off to bed. . . . Not so early as their mother said they should be there, but not so late either. He sees that they take their showers properly and he plumps them into bed and kisses them good night and opens their windows and turns out the light and it seems to him they are more quiet than usual—and perhaps a bit wistful, as if they missed somebody.

And when the house is quiet and little bare feet are pattering in the hall no longer, he sits down in his own chair and opens a book and he feels "a bit wistful," too, as if he missed somebody. . . . It wasn't as jolly as it seemed. Where there were usually four, there had been only three, and suddenly he realizes that four-minus-one is much less than three. When mother's away it's not the same house, not the same family at all; and the house isn't even a home. It's so incomplete, so still. He'll probably be going to bed earlier than usual.

SEE YOUR DOCTOR

To feel tired and out of sorts once in a while is no reason for your becoming worried about yourself. If these spells are of fairly regular occurrence you should consult your doctor.

The old machine that is you won't run smoothly all the time without an occasional pepping up, or looking after you, know.

Give as much attention to your own mechanism as you would to your car.

That ought to be apparent, without argument. Usually you can bring to mind something that you have done that you ought not to have done, when you do not feel well.

The body will stand a lot of punishment, and is elastic enough to take care of itself if given a chance.

But, like a car, it will knock and sputter and won't take too much abuse.

But worrying about your health won't do you one bit of good.

You are to be pitied if you cannot get to a doctor or to one of the clinics to be examined if you are really ill.

Apply to the proper source for such attention and you will get it.

Meanwhile don't worry or feel alarmed, for doctors can do wonderful things in these days.

FOREIGNER

Oh, whether he speak in French or Greek.

This fact of him still is true, He'll have need for a friend to his journey's end.

And need for a task to do, As the swift hours go he will hungry grow.

He will wince at the clutch of pain, And he'll bitterly sigh if his child should die.

And his prayers prove all in vain.

He may dwell afar, where the tropics are

Or north where the cold winds blow.

But why should we sneer at his customs queer,

When under the skin we know Till the day he dies he will share our sighs.

Find peace in the self-same way, And haste with delight with the dusk of night.

To share in his youngsters' play?

Foreigners, yes, we may that confess In habits and language strange, But brother to all in the great and small.

Soul customs that never change, As you and I he will sometimes cry When sorrows his life invade.

And as you and I he was born to die, Wherever his home is made.

Show Of Public Confidence Made Factor In Bank Revival

President Roosevelt Receives Much Credit For Prompt Action And Vigorous Treatment Of Emergency Which Threatened Country

His handling of the bank crisis in such a way as to maintain public confidence inspires strong commendation for President Roosevelt. The vigor of his attack upon conditions that existed before the bank holiday is credited with strong psychological effect, in addition to the benefits that are held to have been derived from prompt action and the sound measures adopted.

"Most people will suffer nothing beyond temporary inconvenience," says the NEWARK EVENING NEWS, with the conclusion that "this is really a wonderful thing for which they can thank vigorous leadership and their own courage and good humor." The NEW YORK SUN observes that "confidence displaced the jitters, and that, after all, was the thing most greatly desired." This feeling is supported also by the PHILADELPHIA EVENING BULLETIN, which finds a "contributing factor in the demonstrated return of public confidence."

Newspapers which are convinced that co-operation combined with confidence produced success are the JERSEY CITY JOURNAL, the SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS, the LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL, the NASHVILLE BANNER, the BUFFALO EVENING NEWS, the DAYTON DAILY NEWS, the SPOKANE SPOKESMAN-REVIEW, the BOISE IDAHO STATESMAN, the MILWAUKEE SENTINEL and the NEW ORLEANS TIMES PICAYUNE.

"Something clicked," declares the FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM, "and with the contact came the first suggestion of co-operation noticeable since the crash of 1929."

That paper concludes that "the simplicity of it all is its obvious virtue." The SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE feels that the press "played a vital part in holding the nation steady," while the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS avers that "with virtual unanimity, the American people applaud, and are greatly heartened by the courageous, vigorous and businesslike manner in which President Roosevelt and Congress met the national emergency." The INDIANAPOLIS NEWS offers the estimate: "The experience with the four-day suspension of bank facilities taught the people that their wealth is not in money but in their material resources, their social organization, their system of government and their faith in credit."

The RUTLAND HERALD, pointing to the effect on gold and currency, adds that "it has brought matters into light and understanding that hitherto have only been hinted at and made the subject of vague rumors." The ATLANTA JOURNAL makes the appraisal: "The country emerges from one of the stressful weeks of its financial history, not only with the material factors of the problem working surely and swiftly toward a solution, but also in the most reasonable and most creditable state of mind it has known for many a year."

Belief that a new high mark of prosperity will be attained as a result of the experience is expressed by the CHARLESTON (S. C.) EVENING POST, and the ROCHESTER TIMES-UNION, while the CHARLOTTE OBSERVER remarks: "Reinforced by the confidence and faith of the American people, the President is cutting straight through to the necessary objectives."

The DANBURY NEWS-TIMES sees "the mess about to be cleaned up with a new and fair start," while the belief in greater prosperity in the future is upheld by the PORTLAND OREGON JOURNAL and the CINCINNATI TIMES-STAR. The ASBURY PARK EVENING PRESS predicts a "uniform banking policy controlled in Washington, for the not far distant future."

"The nation," in the opinion of the WASHINGTON EVENING STAR, "can face the unfurling of 'business as usual' signs with confidence and relief. For many have learned a lesson that will stand the present and future generations in good stead as America marches forward to her high destinies." Beneficial effects on the gold situation and the currency of the country are recognized by the BOSTON TRANSCRIPT, the ROANOKE WORLD-NEWS, the SCANTON TIMES, the NEW YORK TIMES and the NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE.

Considerable commendation is given to President Roosevelt for his prompt and vigorous action, with recognized psychological effects, by the SAN JOSE MERCURY HERALD, the OMAHA WORLD-HERALD, the BIRMINGHAM AGE-HERALD and the CHICAGO TRIBUNE, the HARTFORD TIMES concludes that "the President has shown decision and leadership and Congress has been loyal to its duty."

The OAKLAND TRIBUNE records the fact that "a breathing spell reveals the dollar sound in world markets," while the PASADENA STAR-NEWS points to the great possibilities that lie before the President and Congress and the masses of the people, all working together in harmony."

Suggestions of revision for the present system come from the TOPEKA DAILY CAPITAL and the SALT LAKE DESERET NEWS, while the OKLAHOMA CITY TIMES feels that "the outlook for improvement is better than it was before the holiday was proclaimed."

According to the CLEVELAND NEWS, "the public may be pretty sure that a thoroughly new plan of banking will be solved, and that a central system will supersede the manifold and confusing systems of the several States."

Dinner Stories

IT WAS THIS WAY—Hospital Nurse: You say financial difficulties brought you here?

Patient: Yes. I saw my tailor coming, crossed the road to avoid him, and half-way across I saw another creditor on the other side—I did not know what to do—hesitated and was hit by a car.

TOO MUCH! Policeman: How did you knock him down?

Motorist: I didn't. I stopped to let him go across—and he fainted!

A GOOD REASON. Bill: Isn't it awful that George is going to get married?

Tom: What's awful about it?

Bill: Why, George was such an easy chap to borrow money from!

COMPETITION IS SWEET. Muriel: Perfect happiness for a girl means getting the man she wants.

Madge: Do you think so? I should have said it means getting the man some other girl wants.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

FARMING BANKERS

Years ago, when a young lawyer, M. H. Aylesworth, now president of the National Broadcasting Co., defended a western farmer against some bankers who held an overdue mortgage against Aylesworth's client, on which they were trying to foreclose. The farmer lost, and when informed he would have to give up the farm, burst into tears.

"Don't cry, please," one of the bankers said sympathetically, patting the farmer's shoulder. "Everything will come out all right."

"I'm not crying for myself," the farmer sobbed. "I'm crying when I think of you bankers going into the farming business."

Bible Thought For Today

I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.—John 1:4.

ECONOMY FIRST "Doctor, I have to go on a sea voyage, and I'm terribly afraid of seasickness. What food would you advise me to eat?"

"The cheapest."

Correct this sentence: "Boo-Hoo" wept little Willie. "Everything's gone wrong around here. The bathtub is busted, my castor-oil bottle is empty and I have to buy the spinach."

The broadcast of the inaugural parade made one fact abundantly clear: The Army Remount Service has greatly improved the quality of cavalry and artillery horses.—The Boston Globe.

COMING, on top of banking, economy and beer, two more messages from President Roosevelt—farm relief and unemployment legislation. If this congress nourished the notion that a recess might be taken after the budget-balancing plan of the administration was out of the way, it might as well settle down to the fact that no such notion is held at the white house; or, if it ever was, that there has been a change. The president, flushed with victory in these first few days, is determined to push ahead while the pushing is good. It may not be so good later on. Indeed, already Democratic voices are raised in protest against or in criticism of centring so much authority in the executive. In no instance has either senate or house been able to force binding caucus decree upon its Democratic members. If unable to do so, now, how can they expect to do so after emergency requirements have been met?

It was necessary that the President should be given temporary power to deal with the banking situation. He has it. It is also necessary, since the congress itself could not or would not undertake even to try to balance the budget for 1934, that he should be given full responsibility within certain limitations for reducing expenses. Republican representatives and senators have joined with Democrats in support of his program. Without such support it would have failed. There would be no bank emergency law. There would be no efficient economy legislation.

Conditions demanded immediate action. Evidently the president has reached the conclusion that he is stronger now than he may be when the enthusiasm cools off. He is striking, therefore, while the iron is still hot. The proposed farm relief bill is intended to give him and the secretary of agriculture almost autocratic powers. Unemployment relief details are yet lacking. Probably both schemes will meet with opposition, but he is in a position to battle opposition much more effectively at present than he might be were he to delay.

Public opinion at the present time demands action and this is a powerful aid to the president in putting through his program.

THEY'RE NOT SO SURE NOW

Did you ever strive with all your might for something and then discover after you got it that realization did not measure up to your expectation? Most persons have. And it looks as though that is about the feeling the business men of the Philippine Islands are experiencing in connection with the opportunity for independence granted the islands by the United States.

The islanders conducted a vigorous and successful campaign for the right to set up their own government. When congress granted them the highly desired privilege there was some opposition on the islands to the term of years before they would become entirely free. The leading business men, however, began thinking the thing over and have reached the conclusion that maybe congress should have made the probationary period even longer. They fear there will be a decided loss in export trade if the island legislators approve the law, all that is necessary to make it effective. The glitter of that which they sought so determinedly has worn off and they are beginning to realize that their foster-parent is a good fellow to stick too, after all.

DANGER IN COLDS

How unfortunate it is that scientists who have been searching for the cause and cure of the common cold did not succeed before spring brought another open season for colds. More colds are contracted in the spring than in any other time of the year and it is popularly believed the late-spring variety of cold is the most difficult to cure.

Spring thaws, rains, sudden changes in temperature and balmy days that cause one to discard winter's raiment with reckless abandon will keep half the population sneezing and blowing until warm weather decided to put in the summer here.

Do You Know You Have Four Feet and We Have Red Cross Shoes TO FIT THEM ALL

Take your tape-line . . . measure your feet off the floor, then standing flat on the floor. Notice how they expand at the heel and ball—even change shape? FOUR feet—That's what you really have. "Sitting" feet. "Walking" feet. And to be comfortable and retain their good looks, your shoes must fit all of them. Which is exactly what Red Cross shoes do!

The makers of Red Cross shoes measured thousands of women's feet—standing, sitting, on tiptoe, walking—and from these average measurements they designed the "Limit" last, which give these shoes their perfect fitting qualities.

That's why Red Cross shoes fit your "sitting" feet with glove-like snugness—yet they never pinch, nor bind, nor burn your "walking" feet. Which is one of the reasons why five times as many women are wearing Red Cross shoes today as wore them in previous years.

A further guarantee of perfect fit—we carry Red Cross shoes in all sizes 3½ to 10, AAAA to E wide.

Beer Gardens To Spring Up

Fashionable New Yorkers May Gather In Elaborate Place To Sip Suds

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—"Co-educational cafe lounges" was the high hat terminology with which New York hotel proprietors and prospective purveyors of the newly legalized beer were referring today when speaking of the drinking accommodations they plan shortly to offer the public.

These "lounges" will be a sort of Americanized version of the European cafe lounge where women as well as men may gather when thirsty. The women of the present generation, who have acquired their drinking habit in the speakeasies of this country, ocean steamship bars and the cafes of Europe, must be definitely counted in on any plans made to serve beer to the public, the hotel men said.

Cafe Lounges
Architectural plans for converting some of the principal hotel auxiliary dining rooms into modified cafe lounges are already being drawn, it was learned. Most of the hotels are planning also to install bars adjacent to the cafe lounges.
Plans also were going forward for establishment of a number of "beer gardens" in the city and adjacent territory. In Westchester county beer gardens will be established as part of that county's park system, it was announced. The county already operates a number of golf clubs.

Training Institute Is Well Attended

Sabbath Schools Of City And County Are Well Represented In Leadership Course

The second session of the Leadership Training Institute which was held at the First Baptist church Thursday evening showed increased attendance and interest and twenty four Sabbath Schools had representatives present, this Institute being sponsored by the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association.
Rev. D. L. Ferguson, pastor of the Highland United Presbyterian church, gave a very interesting and instructive review in the church history course, for the period from the close of the Apostolic Age to the Council of Nicea or in time from 64 A. D. to 325 A. D. He touched upon the various persecutions, the outstanding exponents and opponents of Christianity and the doctrines that had their beginning during this period.
Rev. Chas. H. Heaton, pastor of the First Baptist church, continued the Christian Psychology course and developed this study as the science of the human soul and its varied activities and relations in the light of the revelation which God has made to man through the Bible. While Rev. Heaton used technical terms he still explained them in every-day language so that those present followed him closely and were enthusiastic over his presentation.

The next session will start at 7:30 Tuesday, March 21 at the First Baptist church and the church history instructor will be Dr. N. A. White, pastor of the First Methodist church of New Castle. Rev. Heaton will continue his course.
The Sabbath Schools that have been represented are: First Christians, First Presbyterian, First Baptist, First Methodist, First U. P., Second U. P., Third U. P., Epworth M. E., Primitive Methodist, Arlington Ave. Free Methodist, Rhodes Mission, First Congressional, Highland U. P., Central Presbyterian, Reformed Presbyterian, Union Baptist, Second Baptist, Mahoning Presbyterian, Italian M. E., Wampum Presbyterian, First Baptist, Chewton, Moravia Presbyterian, First Christian, Ellwood City, and Sharon United Presbyterian.

PRINCE JOB PROVES FULL OF TROUBLES
(International News Service)
SINAI, Roumania—Prince Michael, 11-year-old son of much-discussed King Carol, and junior bob-sled champion of his country, recently lost his championship title at the winter sports events held here, being placed second to a boy of his own age.
The young prince has been having his own troubles lately. Only a few weeks ago he was obliged to spend his pocket money for the month in order to replace the top-hat belonging to one of the officials which he had spoiled.

And now steps are being taken to curb his very healthy, boyish appetite, for it seems that he is decidedly over-weight and will turn out to be the proverbial "fat boy" if he doesn't watch out.

YOUNG MAN HAS ODD COLLECTION
A young man yet in his teens was a member of the police court class this morning. He was arrested shortly after midnight on Washington street as he wandered about in an intoxicated condition. He admitted remembering where he got some of the things and was released upon his promise to return the mail box to the point from which it had been torn and the puzzles where he had stolen them. There was no requirement made concerning the head of lettuce.

While for a time it looked as if it might have been thrown through the window for the purpose of getting in to commit a robbery, the police state that the indications are that the stone was hurled through the window when the tire of a passing automobile passed over it.

Testimonial Given Sen. Weingartner

Luncheon Given At The Castle-ton At Noon—Express Appreciation

Honoring Senator George T. Weingartner for his services as chairman of the Lawrence County Emergency Relief board, a luncheon was tendered him and Mr. Weingartner today at noon in the Castle-ton hotel. The luncheon was attended by members of the Emergency Relief board, the Mayors' Relief committee, the American Red Cross, the Associated Charities and the Board of County Commissioners.
Rev. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church and acting chairman of the Emergency Relief board since Senator Weingartner's resignation acted as chairman of the luncheon. In his opening remarks he called attention to the fact that the burden of the work of organizing the committee and handling the relief money of the state had fallen upon Senator Weingartner's shoulders and that he had done this work not only without any compensation, but without using any of the money for paid assistance.
"His resignation is a matter of regret to us all," said Dr. Bennett and I doubt that his successor can do the work without having some regularly employed assistance. We will miss Senator Weingartner's shoulders, but we realize that he cannot continue to devote all of his time to relief work to the detriment of his own business."

A number of those present were called upon to speak and short addresses of appreciation were delivered. Among the speakers were: Mrs. Nettie G. Matheny, Attorney

Charge Attempt To Drain Gas

As two police officers were driving a machine out of the alley from the McCready Ice & Coal company and along the Braatz service station, they saw a car parked in front of the pumps of the station. Questioning the occupants of the car, Orlando Fornataro and Arthur Mitchell, they learned that the former had been attempting to drain some gasoline from the hose of the pumps in order to get enough gasoline to get home. The car was found to be the property of Goldie Stewart of Dewey avenue. This morning Fornataro was assessed a fine of $10 with the alternative of ten days in the county jail by Mayor C. B. Mayne.

Findings of three physicians, each of whom advised against incarceration for Kline, have been presented to Judge Finletter by District Attorney Andrew T. Park.

Man Seriously Burned In Fire At Rock Springs

Has Narrow Escape From Death As Cottage Burns At Summer Resort

OTHER OCCUPANTS FLEE MORNING FIRE

Archibald B. Drummond, aged about 25, is in a serious condition in the Jameson Memorial hospital, suffering from burns about the face, hands, and back, sustained when his cottage at Rock Springs Park, near Harlansburg, was destroyed by fire shortly after 7 o'clock this morning. The loss was approximately $1,500, and was not covered by insurance.

Three other occupants of the cottage, Helen Hayes, housekeeper, and Bill Clifford and Ross Platt, who were living at the cottage with Drummond, also had narrow escapes, and were forced to jump from a second story window when their escape down the stairway was blocked by the flames.

Drummond was brought to the hospital by Kenneth Brest, who resides at a cottage nearby, while Miss Hayes was removed to the Brest cottage, sustaining injuries to her legs when she jumped from the window.

Mr. Drummond stated that he believed the fire was caused from an overheated gas heater on the first floor, the cottage being a two-story frame affair. He had only recently purchased the place. He stated that he expected to rebuild the cottage at once.

The four occupants of the cottage were asleep on the second floor when the blaze broke out. Drummond received his burns when he went back into the building to rescue Miss Hayes, unaware that she had already made her escape.

Hotel Directors Are Re-elected

Annual Meeting Of Stockholders Of The Castleton Held Last Night

Stockholders of The Castleton Hotel met Thursday night in the hotel ball room and elected directors for the coming year. The personnel shows no changes, the same directors being re-elected. They are: F. Morehead, O. P. Brown, P. J. Flaherty, F. L. Rentz, George T. Weingartner, H. B. Richards, A. C. Hoyt, C. H. Johnson, J. K. Love, R. C. Love, D. S. Pyle and J. L. Kincaid.

William B. Howe, presided at the meeting and called upon the president of the board T. F. Morehead for a short address. Mr. Morehead told of the progress made in the past year and predicted that when times returned to normal, The Castleton would be a busy place. H. B. Richards, treasurer gave his report and showed the condition of the hotel insofar as finances were concerned.

The directors will meet shortly and organize for the year.

YOUNG COLLEGE GIRL PLAYS GOLF

Sports occupy almost as important a place in the college curriculum as education, declares Lucien Le-long. This gray hand-knitted sports costume was especially designed by him for the college girl. With the suit is worn a gray hand-knitted small hat. The costume was sketched in Paris.

IF U. S. RECOGNIZES RUSSIA—

If and when Soviet Russia is recognized by the United States, Alexandre Troianovsky, above, is expected to be named first ambassador to the United States. Washington reports say that former Gov. Troianovsky has been ambassador to Japan for the past five years.

Marietta, Ohio, Is Flooded By Surging River

Practically Entire Business District Is Under Water Today

MARIETTA, O., Mar. 17.—With practically the entire business district under water, the Ohio river was believed to be gradually approaching its flood crest here today. At nine a. m. the river stood at 41 feet but it was expected to become stationary within an hour.

A survey of the town this morning showed that four-fifths of the business district and approximately one quarter of the residential area was flooded.

Relief work was well under way in the stricken area with the flood refugees being cared for in factory buildings.

Only one paved highway, U. S. Route No. 21 to Cambridge, remained open to traffic.

State Banks To Be Given Rights

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—Congressional action to place State banks on a par with National banks in the issuance of emergency currency appeared assured today.

Declaring that President Roosevelt has approved a bill making this provision, Rep. Henry B. Steagall (D) of Alabama, chairman of the House banking committee, planned to call the measure up for passage during the day.

The new bill, framed as a substitute for the Robinson bill passed by the Senate, permits Federal Reserve banks to make direct loans to State banks and to issue currency approved assets of the banks.

Kakovros Case Is In Hands Of Jury

The case of Peter Kakovros, charged with involuntary manslaughter in connection with the death of John Starvos, which has been on trial before Judge R. L. Hildebrand, went to the jury at noon today. Starvos and Kakovros were engaged in a fight on the north side of the diamond. Starvos was knocked down, his head striking the pavement, causing injuries from which it is alleged he died. It was admitted that Kakovros had struck the first blow, but it is claimed that Starvos was forcing the fight at the time he was knocked down.

Mills Planning For Reopenings

(International News Service) KITTANNING, Pa., Mar. 17.—Resumption of activities by two industries at Templeton, in the Kittanning district, will give employment to scores of men, it was announced today.

Shut down over a year ago, the Templeton plant of Harrison Walker or Refractories Company has posted notice that operations will be resumed next week. Men are now at work putting the plant in shape for the continuation of brick making.

The Allegheny River Limestone Company will resume mining operations shortly. A force of men are now overhauling mine machinery. The company ships by river to Neville Island, near Pittsburgh, and last year employed over 100 men while operating.

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

Letters Intended For This Column Must Be Signed With Name And Address Of Writer

BURGESS AT CAPITAL

J. A. McGowan, the Hitch Hiking Burgess of Prospect is still in Washington, D. C. according to a letter received by F. L. Rentz from him. The Burgess is enjoying the hurly burly of the national capital and has some comment to make. It follows:

Washington, D. C. Mar. 16, '33. Mr. Fred L. Rentz, Dear Sir:

Have been here since February 23. Hitched it in 13 hours, not bad for a Democrat. Do I want something? No. Am a candidate back home for Jury Commissioner and would rather be defeated there (which won't happen) than have an appointment here. Too old, you know to make new friends here. Am in Swick's office every day to read the News and the Butler Eagle. Swick goes along with Franklin but like myself thinks he is in a ditch on beer. I don't think you could balance anything with froth off beer. The president is driving them so fast they don't have time to heed the sign boards along the highways by their constituents back home but in a couple of years another election will be held and some will get orders to stay at home. This is a great city, my first visit, so enjoy it very much. I will go home with the doctor when Congress goes in recess. With kind regards to you, I am,

J. A. MCGOWAN, Hitch Hiking Burgess of Prospect.

Stanley Blaschak charged with larceny from the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, was placed on trial at court this morning before Judge James A. Chambers. It is claimed that Blaschak stole some carpenter tools, blankets, and other articles from a Baltimore and Ohio Construction camp along the railroad near West Pittsburg.

PICKLE "DRUNK"

Athlete May Have Strangled Self To Death

(International News Service)
ROCHESTER, N. Y., Mar. 17.—Erik Bauman, young German-American athlete, may have strangled himself to death while attempting to execute an escape from an improvised straight-jacket as a dress rehearsal of an exhibition he may have planned for a party he was to attend next Tuesday night. This theory was advanced today by Policeman John Hargather, amateur handcuff expert and escape artist, a former pupil of Harry Houdini, the magician, in explanation of the mysterious death of the young athlete, whose body was found trussed up in a sleeping bag in his room at the Y. M. C. A. here. After his first examination of the body Captain John P. MacDonald declared Baumann was murdered—"the most brutal murder in my 50 years on the force."
District Attorney Ray F. Fowler, his assistants and a squad of police, all of whom are actively concentrating on attempts to solve the mystery of Baumann's death, remained noncommittal as Hargather expounded his theory of accidental strangulation.
Hargather pointed out that only 24 hours before the discovery of the tragedy he had given a lecture at the Y. M. C. A. on methods of escape from a straight-jacket, and had supported his talk with several demonstrations. Baumann may have attempted to emulate some of these feats, it was suggested.
A toast, gentlemen! To our faithful old pals, the politicians. We can always count on them to stick us through thick and thin.
We'll be seeing it soon. The farm problem solved. "Mr. Hoozit Rents 100-Acre Tract to Lay Out Billion-Piece Jigsaw Puzzle."

The Curse Of Intemperance

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

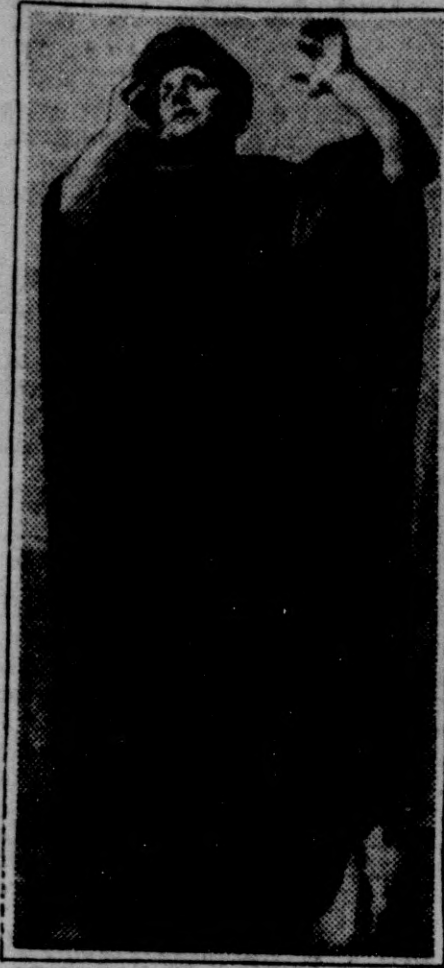

(The international uniform lesson on the above topic is Prov. 23:29-32; Isaiah 28:1-4; Daniel 5:1-4; the Golden Text being, Prov. 23:32, "At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.")

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL
While there may be wide difference of opinion as to the best way of handling the problem, there is no disputing the evil and peril of intemperance. There is nothing essentially new about the problem. It is as old as the human race. Warnings have been sounded against drunkenness in every generation since Noah's disgraceful abuse of strong drink.

The wise King Solomon, who was not always a model in matters of temperance, warns against the evils of intemperance: "Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath complaining? who hath wounds without cause? . . . Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it sparkleth in the cup, when it goeth down smoothly: at the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder." There is no gift of God that cannot be turned into a curse by its abuse. If we cannot use it temperately it becomes deadly.

Isaiah's Warning.
Drunkenness and idolatry were the besetting sins of Israel in the days of Isaiah's ministry and met with the prophet's scathing denunciation in such terms as these: "Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley of them that are overcome with wine! Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one; as a tempest of hail, a destroying storm, as a tempest of mighty waters overflowing, will be cast down to the earth with the hand. The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim shall be trodden under foot. The nation's sins had so weakened it that it would fall so easy a prey to its enemies that Isaiah likened it to the season's first ripe fig ready to fall into the hand of the devourer.

Daniel's Warning.
The wholesome effects of temperance, discipline and self-control are exemplified in the story of Daniel, both in his youth and later manhood. Carried away captive to Babylon as a young man he was thrust into an environment not only strange to him but repulsive. Entirely different customs as to food and drink were commended to him. "But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank; therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself." It is this "purpose of heart" that youth needs today. With it one becomes master of his environment rather than a slave to it. This "purpose of heart" raises one to independence of changing laws and national customs. With it Daniel, though a captive, was freer than Belshazzar on his throne. Without it nations and individuals may read the handwriting on the wall by the finger of God: "God hath numbered thy kingdom and finished it. Thou art weighed in the balance, and found wanting."

Believe It Or Not Here's "Tall Story"

Yes Sir This Rat And Cat Eat, Play Together

Director of Public Improvements Stanley Treser came forth today with a "Believe It Or Not" and a story which should find a place among the "Tall Story" list.

Here it is, as Treser tells it: The toolhouse of the street department and a feed store are adjacent properties in North Croton avenue.

A cat is kept at the feed store to dispose of rats and mice.

Yesterday an employee of the street department tossed a crust of bread to the cat.

Imagine his surprise when he saw a rat eating at one end of the crust and the cat eating the other end.

This being something unusual to a bystander, he called the attention of Caretaker Jack White to the unique sight.

"Oh, that's nothing," remarked White. "The cat and rat play together."

Japanese Diplomat Suggests Removing Of Atlantic Fleet

Yosuke Matsuoka, Returning From Geneva By Way Of U. S. Grants Interview

Says Relations Between Japan And United States Near Straining Point

Yosuke Matsuoka, chief Japanese delegate at Geneva before Japan quit the League assembly, has written an astonishingly frank statement for International News Service, calling upon the United States to withdraw her Atlantic scouting fleet from the Pacific ocean as a means of improving Japanese-American relations.

Tokyo newspaper recently hinted such a request would be made at Washington, but Matsuoka is the first responsible diplomat to make such a public declaration. He sailed from England today aboard the Leviathan and expects to confer with President Roosevelt on the Manchurian problem and Pacific relations. His statement follows:

By YOSUKE MATSUOKA (Copyright, 1933, by International News Service)

LONDON, Mar. 17.—I am glad to comply with a request by International News Service for a statement setting forth my views regarding the Pacific problem.

I want to dispel once and for all the impression prevalent among many Americans that Japan is a disturber of universal peace.

Japan's action in Manchuria was to establish peace, not to disturb it.

As regards relations between Japan and the United States, I want to emphasize that I cannot see any cause for war provided we mutually mind our own business.

Atmosphere Is Tense

It is true that the atmosphere existing in both countries at the present moment is not reassuring. I am certain that this is caused by a mutual lack of understanding of each others' aims and difficulties.

Injudicious actions and words on your part hurt the Japanese and the feeling now existing in Japan is the reaction.

All those who really desire peace and a new era of friendly co-operation in the Pacific should, I believe, use all their efforts to dispel the undercurrent of distrust and fear. I believe, for instance, that a return of the United States scouting fleet to its normal base in the Atlantic would appeal to the Japanese people as one of the greatest gestures of good will and peaceful neighborliness that the United States could make.

It would usher in a new era of relations between the two countries.

Andrew Mellon Leaves For Home

Japanese Delegate Also Making Trip To America At Same Time

(International News Service) LONDON, Mar. 17.—Government officials and the London diplomatic corps turned out in full forces today to bid farewell to Andrew W. Mellon, retiring American ambassador whom he went to Waterloo station to catch the Leviathan boat train.

According to previously announced plans, Mellon plans to retire from public life upon his return to the United States.

Aboard the same train was Yosuke Matsuoka, who was Japan's delegate to the League of Nations and who is now returning to Tokyo.

Matsuoka entered his compartment under a heavy guard of plain clothes police.

Jurors Will Not Be Called Next Week

Judge R. L. Hildebrand made an order Thursday evening directing the sheriff to notify jurors summoned for next week that they need not appear, as criminal court will be concluded this week. It may be that jurors will be taken in the final cases to hold over until Monday, but no more jurors will be needed. There are several cases in which pleas have been entered which has made it possible to end court this week. Sheriff Frank Johnston immediately dispatched notices to the jurors called for next week not to appear.

Shocks Continue At Long Beach

(BULLETIN) (International News Service) LONG BEACH, Cal., Mar. 17.—Another earthquake shock in the Long series of after tremors that have followed the destructive earthquake of last Friday was felt here today at 9:55 a. m.

A bright warm sun today followed the rain of last night and brought cheer to the thousands still without homes.

Shakespeare wouldn't have asked what's in a name if he had heard the stuff that some radio stars get paid for.

President's Son in New Role

Elliot Roosevelt, second son of the President, is pictured as he got a taste of the real West, for which he turned his back on the White House, when he attended a rodeo in Fort Worth, Texas, recently. With young Roosevelt is Tad Lucas, world's champion cowgirl. The President's son left Washington soon after his father's inauguration with the intention of beginning his career as a rancher in Arizona.

BOYS PLAYING ON STREETS WARNED BY POLICE CHIEF

Chief John F. Haven of the police department took occasion today to again remind the parents of children in all parts of the city and particularly in the vicinity of the intersection of Albert street and Sheridan avenue, of a very dangerous practice of children at that point.

According to the chief there is going to be a terrible accident, with probable fatal results to one or more of the children, who congregate at that point to play.

An automobile, according to the chief, cannot pass that street intersection or girls hanging on the rear of the car, often having the car pull them along on their roller skates.

There have been several instances of late, according to the chief in which boys and girls playing there have narrowly escaped serious injury and possible death.

The police authorities have notified the children time and time again to stop this, but without the proper results. The chief believes that if the parents would take a hand in the matter, that the practice could be broken up.

All you need to prevent panics is a continued supply of suckers to pay the last purchaser a profit.

Financial Tail Spin Ended On March 15 U.S. Figures Reveal

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—America was out of its financial tail-spin by March 15.

Figures released by the Federal Reserve board today showed that the tremendous increase in money circulation, the flight of gold and the downward plunge of member bank reserve balances had been checked in the week ending that date.

The week was abnormal in that during only three of the seven days were any banks open. The reduction in circulation indicated that in many reserve districts at least, little of the new money—Federal Reserve bank notes—will be needed unless there is a change in the upward trend.

On March 15 money in circulation amounted to $7,269,000,000, a decrease of $269,000,000 for the week. Circulation was $1,564,000,000 higher an five weeks earlier, and exceeded the corresponding week of March 1932 by $1,747,000,000.

There was an evident heavy decline in gold in circulation as a result of the edict against hoarding by President Roosevelt. While the reserve figures do not show gold in circulation there was an increase of $327,000,000 in total reserve bank gold reserves. This represents a gain in ratio of reserves to deposits and reserve note liability from 45.6 per cent, the week ending March 8, to 49.1 per cent for the following week and an increase in the circulation of reserve notes.

For the first time in several years the reserve board's statement reported Federal Reserve bank notes in circulation, aggregating $3,301,000. This is the new money being issued because of the shortage of currency resulting from hoarding and bank tie-ups. A small amount of these bank notes has been in circulation for many years. All bank notes were issued by the New York Federal Reserve bank.

Federal Reserve notes, which must be backed by at least 40 per cent gold except where the gold requirement is reduced by the board, were outstanding in the amount of $4,292,702,000, an increase of $77,000,000 for the week.

higher than four weeks ago. Holding of government securities was $1,880,000,000, a reduction of $1,000,000 for the week and an increase of $1,070,000,000 in a year.

FRATS SHOW STEADY DECREASE AT OHIO

(International News Service) COLUMBUS, O.—Fraternity membership at Ohio State University has been steadily decreasing during the last four years, a report of Joseph A. Park, dean of men at the university, shows.

Membership in the fraternities has decreased from 3,205 in 1929 to 2,398 this year, revealing a loss of 807 men in four years.

Dean Park attributes the loss of fraternity men to decreased finances of students, and the fact that they are not as much interested in being affiliated as formerly.

BOYS' ROCKS WRECK VALUABLE WINDOWS

(International News Service) PASADENA, Calif.—Small boys whose particular delight is rock-throwing discovered their antics were costly when windows in a church here were smashed.

Stained glass bearing religious scenes were valued at hundreds of dollars, one pane alone costing $1,500.

MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE FILED AFTER 54 YEARS

PUEBLO, Colo.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Benham decided they might as well register their marriage certificate.

They had been married 54 years ago. Colorado was too busy then digging gold and watching for hostile Indians to bother much about registration of marriage certificates, so there was no law concerning them.

The law has long been in effect, but the Benhams, pioneers of the region, had never gotten around to registering their certificates until the other day when they startled the county clerk here by presenting the old certificate dated January 7, 1879.

HERE'S ANOTHER OLD RAZOR BLADE PROBLEM

(International News Service) NEWTON, Mass.—When a goldfish, especially a pet, outgrows its bowl, what's to be done about it?

A woman resident, whose name was not revealed, took the matter to city officials. She suggested that the fish would look nice swimming around in the "mirror pool" in front of the new city hall.

However, the city could not accept the fish before summer because the water had been withdrawn from the pool for the winter.

ROME—At the cost of $1,000,000 Rome is to have a new prison, with every modern improvement, including steam heat and well lighted workshops.

It will be built near the old Bocca fort on the outskirts of the city.

It will have cells for isolating remand prisoners or those awaiting trial and for keeping their preliminary examination secret from other prisoners, not easy in the old prison called Regina Coeli (Queen of Heaven), situated on Tiber's banks on the site of a monastery from which it took its name.

Rockefeller Not Richest Man In Country, Report

Wealth Of Mellon, Ford, Schwab, Baruch, Morgan And Others Ahead Of Rockefeller

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—John D. Rockefeller, Sr., the man who thought only in terms of millions when he was cracking the whip in the money markets but who of recent years has thought only in terms of bright shiny dimes, is no longer the richest man in the world.

For decades he has enjoyed that reputation but now it must be admitted that the former oil king has abdicated his throne.

Henry Ford, Andrew Mellon, Charles M. Schwab, Bernard Baruch, and J. Pierpont Morgan, to name only a few, have gone beyond the present Rockefeller fortune. It is equally true the senior Rockefeller's abdication was a voluntary one, for since the turn of the century he has given away several fortunes to philanthropic activities and turned over huge holdings to his son.

Fortune Shrinks
The wealth of a man is usually estimated by the amount of money he gives away. The legendary Croesus, wealthiest figure in all antiquity, once gave $10,000,000 to the Delphi Oracle. This gave him quite a reputation and until the present century he had always been regarded as the wealthiest man of all time.

Today the Rockefeller fortune can be rated as only one of the comparatively minor fortunes of the country. The economic slump cut deeply into what he had retained after his enormous contributions to charity.

Cigarettes, like Foods - need Seasoning

That's the part Turkish Tobaccos play in making Chesterfields Taste Better

SMOKERS notice a certain "touch" in Chesterfields that comes from having just enough Turkish tobacco in them... a spicy, aromatic flavor that's much the same to a cigarette as seasoning is to food.

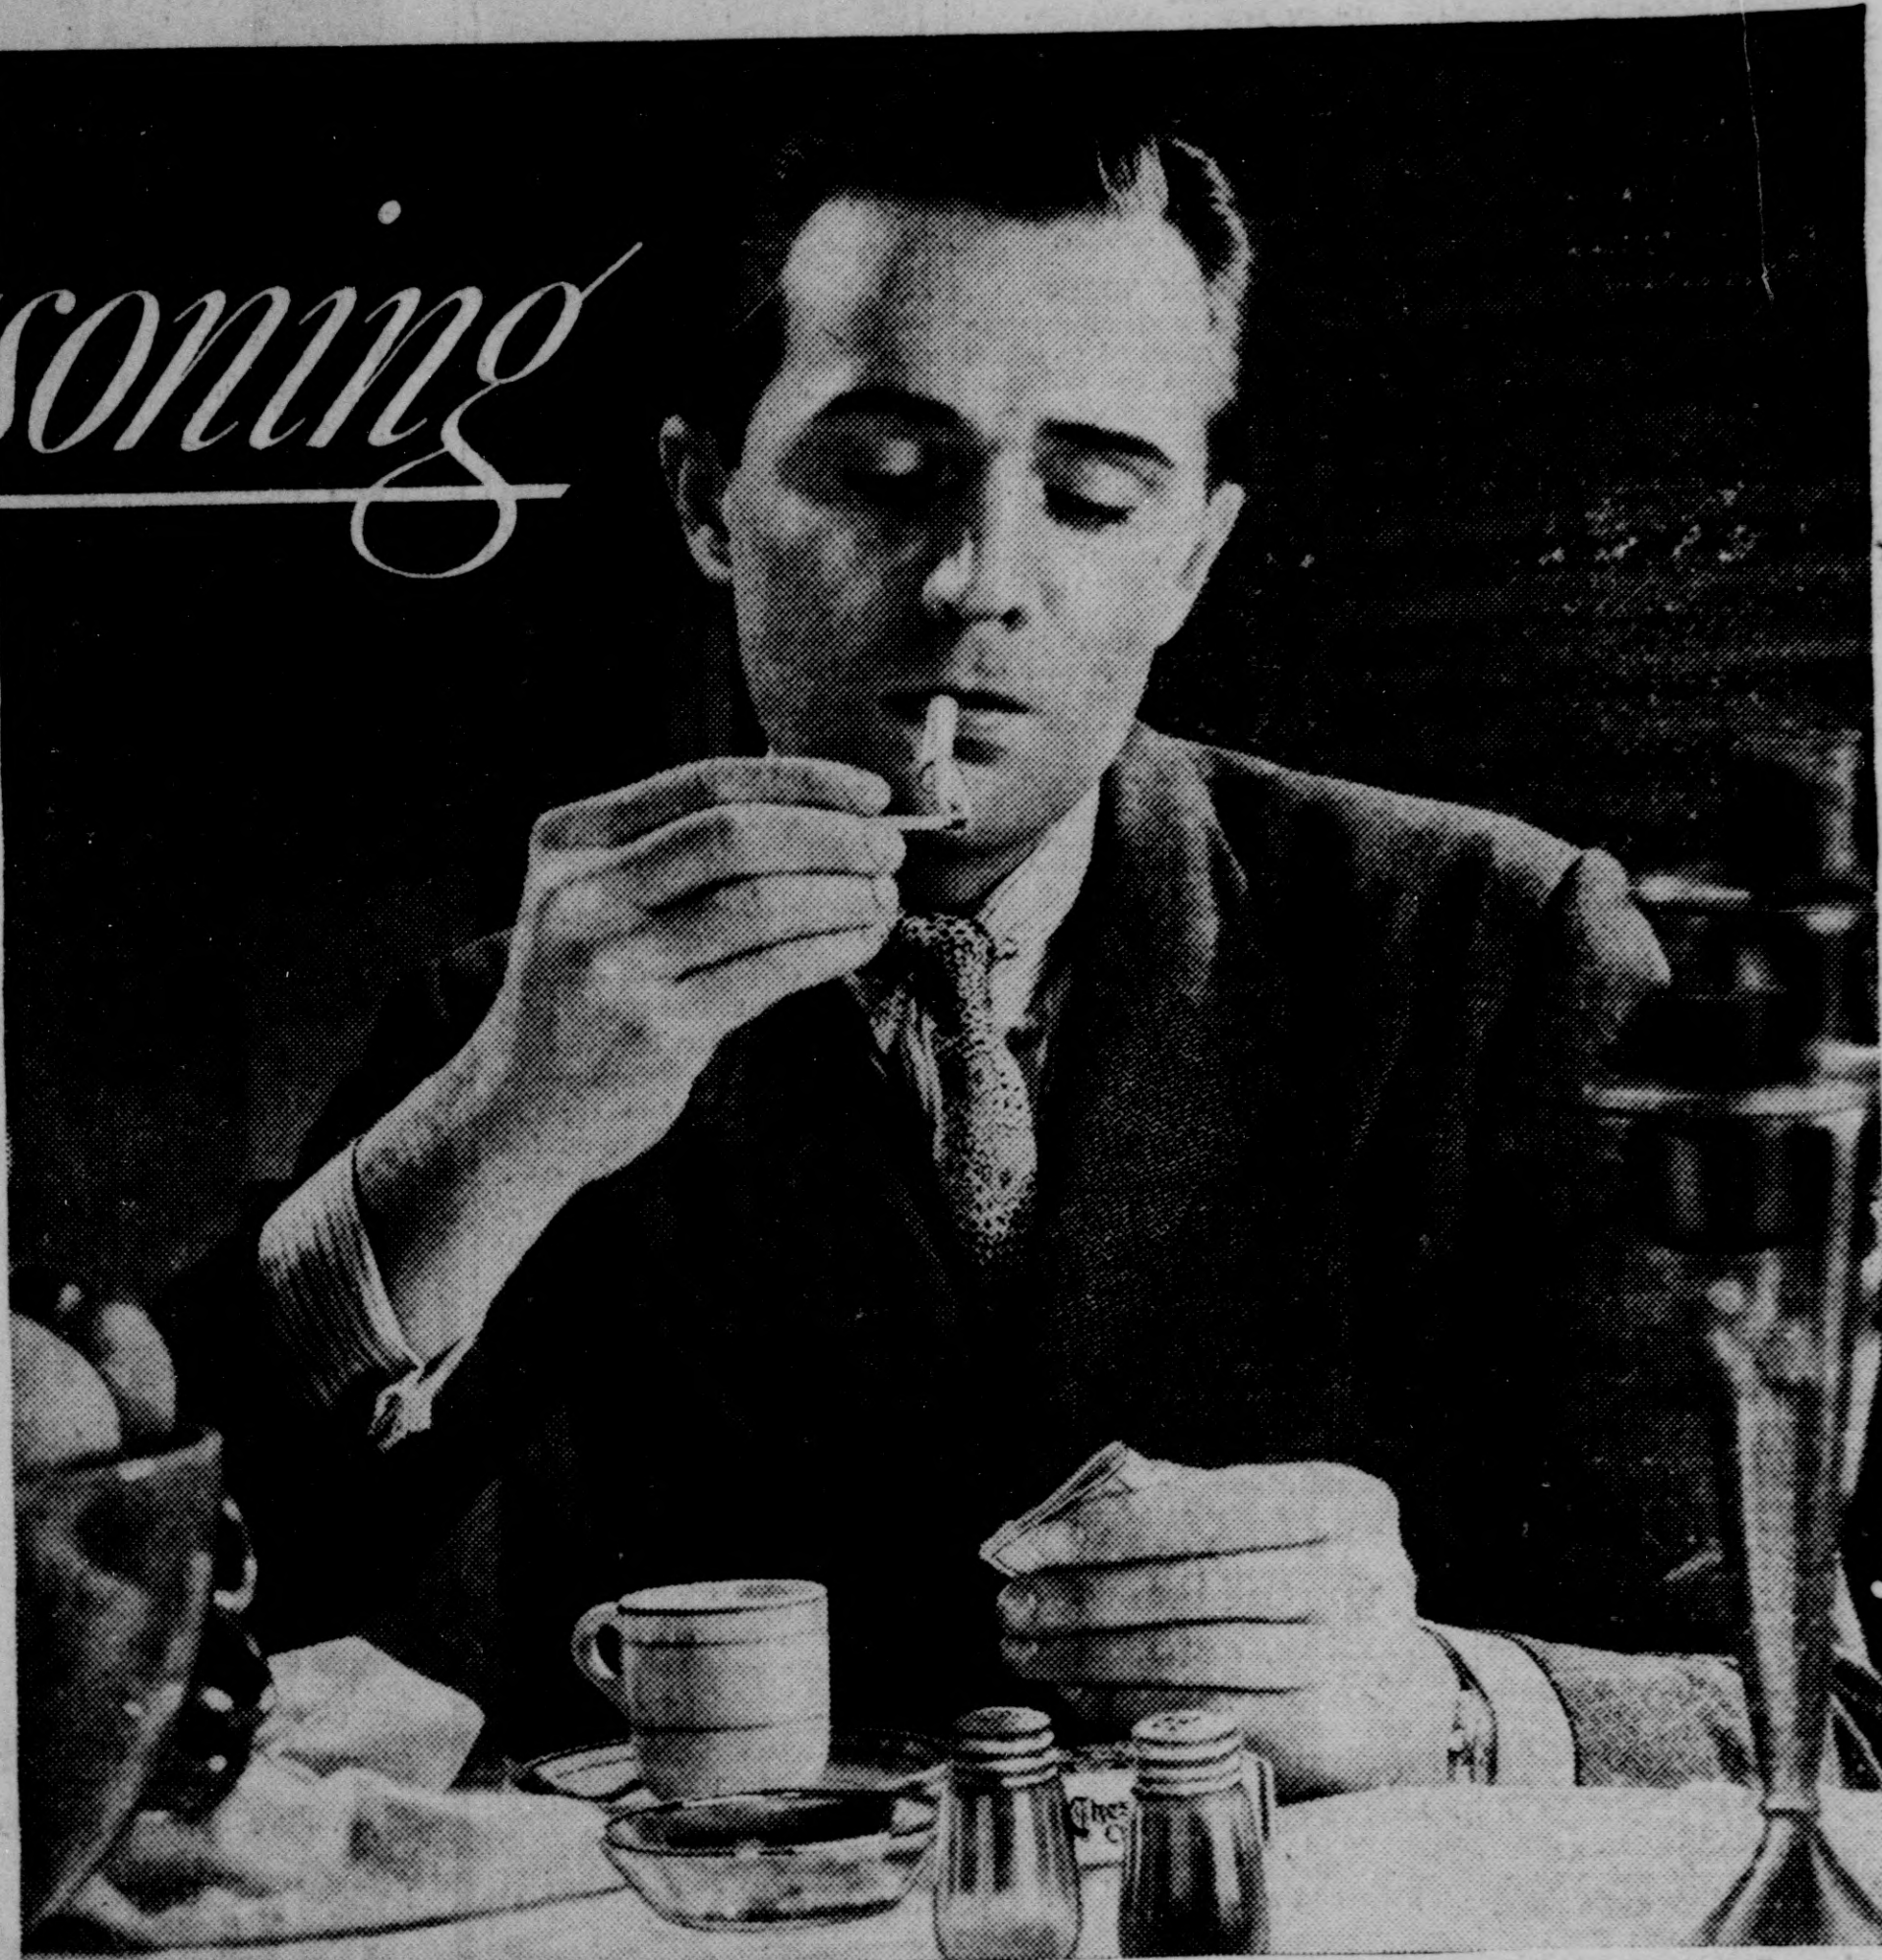

For only by blending and cross-blending the right amounts of mild Domestic tobaccos with the right amount of Turkish can we get the flavor and aroma that Chesterfield smokers enjoy.

Next time, ask for "The Cigarette that Satisfies"... you'll get Chesterfields, with Milder, Better Taste.

TOMORROW BRINGS EVEN GREATER BARGAINS

FARM RELIEF BILL IS BEFORE CONGRESS

Expect Speedy Action On Bill

Measure Recommended By President, But Admitted To Be Experiment

DESIGNED TO BOOST PRICES

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—The administration's farm relief bill, designed to boost prices on basic agricultural commodities produced this year, was before congress today with Democratic leaders promising speedy enactment.

Agricultural committees of senate and house planned to consider the measure, with Chairman Jones (D) of Texas of the house committee planning to bring the bill up for passage tomorrow.

The bill is declared by farm experts in congress to embrace one of the most sweeping emergency farm relief plans ever proposed. It was recommended by President Roosevelt with the bank statement that it is an experiment.

Limit Production.
The basic plan of the bill is to remove the agricultural surplus, which depresses prices, by limiting production during the 1933 crop year. Because the planting season is about to begin, extraordinary speed in passage was planned.

The basic agricultural commodities embraced in the bill are wheat, cotton, corn, hogs, cattle, sheep, rice, tobacco, milk and milk products. The secretary of agriculture can drop any product from operation of the bill.

A processing tax would be levied upon all the products, similar to the billion dollar tax proposed in the domestic allotment bill, to meet the cost of operation.

School Budget As Set For Year

Over Million Dollars Will Be Required For School Expenses

ITEMIZED LIST IN YEAR'S BUDGET

An examination of the detail of the school budget for the coming year, shows that a total that compares with that of 1932-33 but in the detail of the budget can be found savings which account for the one mill cut effected by the school board.

One of the major sources of increased expenditures is the sinking fund. In 1932-33 there was a balance of $30,000 at the beginning of the year which meant that only $40,000 had to be added for the redemption of bonds. This year the bill is empty and the $70,000 must all come from tax money. The issue will be refunded this year which will postpone the actual payment for a time.

In the estimated expenditures shown below, it must be remembered that twenty per cent of all salary figures shown should be deducted as the board expects to get a twenty per cent voluntary contribution from each salaried employee as it did at the beginning of this school year.

The detail of the budget as shown in accounts, follows. Decreases of approximately $12,000 are shown in the basic salary allocations. To this must be added the 20 per cent savings which will be approximately $138,839. About $80,000 has been saved on text books and supplies, $1089 on repairs, about $6500 on water, fuel, light and telephones; and $1500 on the Teachers Retirement Fund, over the figures of last year. The amounts of each allocation for the coming year follow.

WOMEN MAKE POOR CLOWNS; TOO SERIOUS

(International News Service)
PARIS.—Women never make good clowns; they're too serious. This is the opinion of Grock, celebrated French tumaker, who has spent a lifetime of clowning in European circuses and is still attracting huge crowds to the famous Cirque d'Hiver in Paris.

"No, women are never funny," adds Grock. "They want to look attractive before the public. Besides, people don't like to watch a woman play the fool. The nearest approach to a woman comedian was Nellie Wallace, but she was more of a funmaker than a clown."

House Committee May Attempt To Simplify Far-reaching Emergency Farm Relief Bill

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—The House agriculture committee may attempt to simplify the far-reaching emergency farm relief bill prepared by President Roosevelt's advisers, Speaker Rainey said today.

After a two hour session behind closed doors, the committee decided to call representatives of the department of agriculture this afternoon to explain the intricate provisions of the plan.

While the committee was canvassing the bill, Secretary of Agriculture Wallace went over its provisions behind closed doors with the Senate agriculture committee.

The measure, which provides for leasing of farm land to reduce production and thus to increase prices, was presented to congress by Wallace following the president's message urging speedy aid for agriculturists.

Agrees With Principles Washington, Mar. 17.—The administration's farm bill now before the Senate and House agricultural committees is in accord with policies advocated by farm organizations for several years, representatives of those organizations today advised the committee.

It agrees with the outline of principles for surplus control and establishment of parity between agricultural and industrial prices as agreed upon last Friday by representatives of farm groups.

Only Anna Dill will be present of the five Roosevelt children. She and her husband were due to arrive in Washington this afternoon.

WORKERS GET JOBS BEFORE PRISONERS

(International News Service) DENVER, Mar. 17.—Colorado workers must be kept busy before consideration is given to convicts in the state penitentiary.

Charles M. Armstrong, secretary of state, recently declared in defending his action in awarding a contract for 1934 automobile license plates to a Denver manufacturer.

Armstrong awarded the contract while a bill reestablishing the prison license-plate factory was being considered by the state legislature.

"Prison labor is a ticklish question," Armstrong said. "The humanitarians have declared that prisoners at Canon City must be occupied for their moral and physical welfare, but what of the thousands of unemployed outside of the prison who need work, not to occupy their minds but to fill their stomachs and to keep their families from starving?"

Stop a COLD the First Day!

Taken Promptly, this Four-Way Remedy Will Usually Stop a Cold the First Day and Save You Much Suffering as Well as the Danger of Serious Complications!

The time to stop a cold is before it gets started. Once a cold fastens itself on you, it becomes twice as hard to remove. And a cold lodged in the system may lead to something worse.

Don't hope to kill a cold with merely local or external applications. A cold is a germ attack, an internal infection and, as such, calls for internal treatment.

Don't hope to kill a cold, either, with anything except a COLD remedy. A cure-all is self-deception. Many preparations which people commonly take for a cold actually make the relief of a cold more difficult because these preparations are constipating and also make the system acid.

The Required Effects

The thing to take for a cold or case of grippe is Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine—because it does the four things necessary, in the way that is necessary.

First of all, it opens the bowels, gently but thoroughly—the first step in knocking a cold. Secondly, it kills the cold germs in the system, expels the poisonous infection and reduces the fever. Thirdly, it relieves the headache and that grippy feeling. Fourthly, it tones the entire system and fortifies against further attack.

This is the treatment a cold calls for and anything less is taking chances.

Harmless, but Effective!

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine may be safely taken by young and old and whether you stay indoors or go out. There is no penalty attached to its use. For more than forty years it has been the standard cold and gripe tablet of the world, the formula keeping pace with Modern Medicine. Always ask for it by the full name and look for the letters L B Q stamped on every tablet. Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine now comes in two sizes—30c and 50c. Resist a substitute as an attempt to exploit you.

NOTE: During Epidemics a tablet or two of Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine every morning and night will do much to fortify your system against infection.

City Engineer Making Surveys

Engaged At Dean Park, Croton Avenue Hillside, Cunningham Park

Employees of the city engineer's department are engaged at three different places where surveys are under way. They are Cunningham park, Croton avenue hillside and Dean park.

Lots are to be allotted unemployed for gardens at Cunningham park. There are 120 acres there. Approximately two thirds of the land will be available for garden purposes.

In speaking of the park this morning Engineer Harry Hoskins said the land lays well and the drainage is good.

The city proposes to erect a stone wall along Croton avenue hill, repair the sidewalks and to erect a neat and strong barrier.

The survey at Dean park is for the purpose of building a new storm sewer across Taylor street into a ravine which will eliminate water from entering the Bartsch property.

Ruling Made On Gasoline Sales

Gasoline Distributed By Brokers To Dealers Within State Must Pay Tax

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Mar. 17.—Gasoline distributed by Pennsylvania brokers to dealers within the state, even if the fuel is shipped from points outside Pennsylvania, is subject to the state gasoline tax, Dauphin county court ruled, Thursday.

The decision was returned on the appeal of the Wiloil Corporation of Pittsburgh, from the refusal of the sitting board of finance and revenue to review the tax settlement for August, September and October, 1931.

The Pittsburgh firm, purchasing gasoline in Maryland, sold the fuel to the Ace Oil Corporation and the High Powered Gasoline Company, Philadelphia, in August, 1931, for delivery to Philadelphia and Essington.

Court disagreed with the appellant's contention that the procedure involved regulations from the interstate commerce commission and ordered the firm to pay $4631.29 in tax and interest to the commonwealth. Because the suit involved the determination of a constitutional question, court revoked the usual 10 per cent penalty imposed for failure to pay the tax.

City May Allot Garden Lots Soon

Within the next week or more, city councilmen will make plans for the allotment of gardens here to unemployed this spring. Ploving of the ground will start as soon as the ground becomes suitable.

Frank Nugent will probably have charge again of the allotment at the sewage disposal grounds and in Clayton street.

A plan may be worked out whereby the city engineers will have charge of the Cunningham park allotment.

The legal department attaches heretofore have given out lots owned by the city in scattered sections. Some of these are fertile enough for gardens and some are not, it is reported.

Farmers Of State Are Given Added Borrowing Power

Law Permitting Loans On Crops And Livestock Becomes Effective

HARRISBURG, Mar. 17.—Farmers may now borrow money and secure repayment by the execution and recording of chattel mortgages on livestock, farm machinery, farm equipment and crops. Such a bill recently was passed by the General Assembly and approved by Governor Pinchot.

This law makes it possible for farmers and livestock raisers to borrow funds from the Reconstruction Finance corporation, regional agricultural credit corporations, the secretary of agriculture of the United States or any federal agency including the United States of America now or later authorized to loan money to agricultural producers and to give as security for such a loan a chattel mortgage upon livestock, farm machinery, farm equipment, or any crop either planted or to be planted within one year from the date of its execution. The law authorizes farmers and livestock raisers to give similar security for loans obtained from any national or state bank, trust company, agricultural credit corporation, incorporated livestock loan company, savings institution, cooperative bank, cooperative credit or marketing association entitled to rediscount privileges with the Federal Intermediate Credit bank.

Under the provisions of this new law, all chattel mortgages given as security for loans to the agencies must be recorded within 30 days after their execution, in the office for the recording of deeds for the county in which the livestock, farm machinery, equipment or crop is actually located at the time of the execution, in a special "chattel mortgage book". The recording fee is $1.50.

Crowds Attending Wesleyan Methodist Revival Gatherings

Paul And Dorothy Kenyon Are Speaking Nightly On Lyndal Street

The second evening of the revival in progress at the Wesleyan church on Lyndal street was opened by a rousing song service led by the pastor. The evangelists, Paul Kenyon and his sister, Miss Dorothy, sang a special number of their own composition, "Don't Doubt."

The scripture lesson was found in Luke II, verses 1-13. Miss Kenyon preached a stirring sermon on "Prayer."

A session of prayer brought the service to a close. Mr. Kenyon will bring the message this evening.

New Castle And Duquesne Preparing For Title Game

New Castle Looks For Tough Battle Saturday Evening

Duquesne High Looms As Only Barrier To New Castle's Championship Drive

Coach Bridenbaugh Will Use Strongest Lineup In Effort To Upset Duquesne

Whether or not New Castle High goes beyond the W. P. I. A. L. tourney in their championship quest depends on what occurs Saturday night when Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh unlooses the leash at the Pitt Stadium and sends the New Castle High basketball team into action against the powerful Duquesne High combination. The battle is to start at 8 o'clock. For one hour these two teams will go at it hammer and tongs. The school-boy title is at stake. A jammed stadium is expected to witness the game. It's another New Castle-Duquesne engagement, and that's enough to draw the fans.

Being Polished Up
Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh is giving the New Castle team just as high a polish as possible. A lot depends on how Captain Reiber performs in this big game. If Reiber can lead the way the rest of the team can be relied on to come through. New Castle would like nothing better than to defeat Duquesne. The Dukes have long been thorns in the side of the Castles. In the practice sessions at Washington High the New Castle boys have looked very good. They are developing speed, which is one essential thing. Accuracy in passing is another matter that is getting attention. Foul shooting is being brushed up. It is going to take thirty-two minutes of the fastest kind of basketball to defeat the Dukes.

Very Fine Setting
This final battle of the 1933 tourney couldn't have had a better conclusion if the thing had been arranged ahead of time. New Castle has been waiting for several years to get back at the Steelers for those upsets that denied them championship honors. The boys on this 1933 team expect to avenge the two former defeats. The Dukes will find an inspired New Castle High team when the whistle blows.

Tickets Going Fast
Coach Bridenbaugh is banking on the triumvirate Reiber, Teplica and Kelly to pile up the points. This trio to date has kept New Castle in the running. Kominic and Ridley can be relied upon to play their cus-

Nick Looking Over Players

Mahoning A. A. Will Have Bang-Up Team, Cangey Asserts

Nick Cangey, one of the hustling baseball managers of the Lawrence county twilight baseball league, is not allowing any spring grass to crop forth beneath his brogans. He's out early and late getting a line on baseball players and according to Nick himself: "I'm going to have a bang-up baseball team this season."

Sunday night the officials of Mahoning A. A. will powwow for the purpose of naming officers for the year. Mahoning will play in the seventh ward.

Tobias Had Peters Jack Hernandez Proves Surprise, Draws With Harris On Floor In Fifth

Ernie Peters a descendant of Chief Punch 'Em in the Face proved the truth of the axiom "a man may be down but not out," when he battled Phil Tobias 10 rounds here August 26, 1929.

In the fifth round Peters was on the floor and the chicadees were twittering in his head. However, the redskin pulled himself to his feet before the referee counted off "ten."

Slashing rights to the jaw in the seventh had Phil looking not so hot and in the closing stanzas Ernie fought so viciously the judges differed. The referee gave Phil the bout.

And what a fight it was! Ernie and Phil had put on some nifty battles here and when they crawled through the ropes they left science in their dressing rooms and slugged with tractor-like power. By the time the fifth arrived the Indian was on the low side of the

MANAGERS TO MEET UMPIRES

Questions To Come Before Body First Monday In April

Managers and umpires approved recently by the managerial board are scheduled to powow the first Monday night in April and following that occasion fans will learn whether or not the arbiters selected will be the umpires who call play ball, when the Lawrence County Twilight Baseball League season starts.

As yet it has not been made plain to whom the umpires will be responsible this season which recalls that when the Lawrence County Baseball League was formed 10 years ago the commission had control of the umpire. Judge Chambers, Ed. Fritz and Charles Cox formed the body.

There were few complaints of a serious nature. In fact in those days it was made plain that the commission expected good umpiring, received it and in return baseball players and managers were not allowed to play "horse" with the umpires.

One of the rules which may be adopted this year, it is said, will ban the smoking of cigarettes by players, attaches of the team or umpires while on the playing field. Profanity will not be tolerated, it is said and if such occurs fines may be imposed.

Among the ten umpires selected by the board are members of the Umpires association which has not yet officially stated their stand toward the league. One of the umpires it was reported last week had no membership in the group headed by Lou Glichter. He is rated as a good umpire.

One of the Umpire association arbiters did not believe, he said that the umpiring system devised by the managerial board would work out. "To whom will they be responsible?" he asked. He favored the Umpires association having control of the arbiters. Some league managers oppose giving control away.

The rate of pay set by the board is 75 cents per game. Some claim that if ball players play for nothing but there's a difference in opinion relative to this. When the crowd is heated umpiring is a hard job.

One of the umpiring difficulties may crop out when Volant and Brent play. Under the managerial board's edict the umpires must find their own way to the game. If an umpire hasn't an auto there may be no league umpire on the job. This problem may be taken care of at the next meeting.

STRANGE FALS

(International News Service) LOS ANGELES, Calif.—A friendship between a leopard and a police dog is hard to believe but Mrs. Virginia Martin proved its truth when she exhibited a Mexican leopard dog playfully frolicking together. The animals sleep in the same cage, eat from the same dish and are constant companions.

You see, it's like this: If a man works hard and saves his money he's a useful citizen; if he overproduces and won't spend he's a menace to society. Simple, what?

Shenango And Union Will Play Class A County League Game

SHENANGO HIGH SCENE OF GAME

Shenango high and Union high will play a class A county league game tonight at the Shenango high floor. The girls of the two schools will play the preliminary game starting at 7:30.

Union high with Coach David Boyd at the helm will try to atone for that upset handed Union by Shenango high earlier in the season at the Union floor. Coach Ed Raney and his Shenango boys hope to make it two straight over the Unionites. The game promises to be a hard fought affair.

Both Union and Shenango are out of the running as far as county championship honors are concerned, but this fact will not lessen the degree of ambition to win this set to that is scheduled for tonight.

Coach Boyd will use his regular starting lineup of Boron and Morrison at the forwards, Phillips at center and White and Schaeffer at the guards. Coach Raney has not as yet decided upon his starting five men.

George Shields Defeats Lott In Tennis Tourney

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—Frank Shields, Davis cup giant whose blazing service has been the feature of the national indoor tennis championship, met Cliff Sutter of New Orleans, second seeded player, in the feature semi-final match today. In the other bracket, Gregory Man-jin, defending champion, opposed Sidney Wood, New York star.

In conquering George M. Lott, Chicago's internationalist by a score of 7-5, 6-2 yesterday, Shields played better tennis than he ever has shown on the courts.

County League Floor Standing

The Lawrence county class A league championship rests with the fine New Wilmington high team, but some of the teams are finishing out the season. Tonight Shenango and Union are battling at Shenango.

The following standing of the league shows that Mt. Jackson is secure in second place.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Grey Hip, a two year old, making the second start of his career won the opening event at the New Orleans fair grounds yesterday and paid the long odds of $500.60 to $2 to win. He returned $354.80 for a similar priced ticket, $52.40 to show.

Ben Jebby is an eight to five favorite to win from Vince Dundee tonight in a 15 round bout in New York. In the Empire state, Jebby is recognized as the middleweight champion.

Already a double winner in southern golf tourneys this season, Mrs. O. S. Hill, Kansas City, will seek her third title today against Maureen Orcutt, Englewood, N. J. in the Augusta women's invitation meet. Mrs. Hill beat Peggy Wattles, Buffalo 3 and 2 and Miss Orcutt beat Kathryn Hemphill, Columbia, S. C. by the same score at Augusta to go into the final round.

Mr. Sponger ran five and a half furlongs in 1:04 flat to win the Ponce De Leon handicap yesterday at Tropical park, Fla. He beat Leroy to pay his backers seven dollars.

Favor Jebby To Beat Dundee In New York Ring

Boxing Experts Pick Good Looking Jewish Boy To Defeat Vince Dundee

By PAT ROBINSON International News Service Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—There are more strange fish in the fight racket than an angler could find in the Sargasso sea and not the least strange of these are the so-called wise boys who make the odds on fights.

The lads have installed Ben Jebby, middleweight champion of the world—in New York state—a 3 to 1 choice to beat Vince Dundee over the 12-round route in Madison Square Garden tonight. It is expected Jebby will be quoted as high as 5 to 1 at ringside.

This has caused the usual rumors about the "fix" being in on this one but you may season this with a whole bag of salt. The fight will be on the level if for no other reason than there is no good reason for it to be otherwise.

Center To Play Highland Team

Saturday night at the Shenango high floor the Center team of the Slippery Rock-Shenango township church league will play the fast Highland U. P. "B" team of the New Castle church league, and the Savannah team will play the Central Christians. The first game will start at 7:45 o'clock.

Titans Hold Edge Over District Opponents During Seven Years

Geneva, Grove City And Duquesne Have Made Best Records Against Titans

Battle Of Smiths Will Come To End

Bobby Smith Of Tech Will Oppose Don Smith Of Pitt For Final Time Tonight

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 17.—Westminster college basketball teams hold a decided edge over all district opponents in a survey made of the last seven seasons. The Titans have defeated every district team more times than they have suffered defeat. Only two teams, Waynesburg and Geneva, have succeeded in defeating Westminster twice in one season. Waynesburg turned the trick in 1927 and Geneva's great team this season won two.

Geneva, Duquesne and Grove City have the best district records against the Titans in seven years. Fourteen games have been played between Geneva and Westminster, and the Titans have won eight and lost six. Against Duquesne, Westminster has won six out of 10 games played.

Of the 12 games played between Grove City and the Titans, Westminster has won nine and Grovers three. Other records are: Thiel: games played, 14; games won by Titans, 14. Allegheny: games played, 14; games won by Titans, 13. Bethany: games played, 14; games won by Titans, 12. Waynesburg: games played, 10; games won by Titans, eight.

Carnegie Tech: games played, three; games won by Titans, three. Washington and Jefferson: games played, four; games won by Titans, four. St. Francis: games played, three; games won by Titans, three. Youngstown college: games played, two; games won by Titans, two. Edinboro: games played, two; games won by Titans, one. Slippery Rock: games played, two; games won by Titans, two. Indiana: games played, one; won by Titans, one.

In the seven seasons, 25 different colleges have been played by Westminster. This includes 13 colleges from Pennsylvania, five from Ohio, two from Michigan, two from West Virginia and one each from Illinois, New York and New Jersey.

Westminster has played 125 games in the seven seasons and has won 104 and lost 21 for a percentage of .832. The 1933 team, with a 25-game schedule, 15 contests of which were away from home, won 19 and lost six.

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Mar. 17.—The end of the "battle of the Smiths" was scheduled for stadium pavilion tonight in the meeting of Carnegie Tech and Pittsburgh on the basketball floor.

Bobby Smith of Tech and Don Smith of Pitt will oppose each other for the last time tonight. Each will be leading his team into the fray as captain.

The "Smith boys"—they are not related—have been lined up on opposite sides of the score sheet in Tech-Pitt games for four years, starting back in the days both played with freshmen squads.

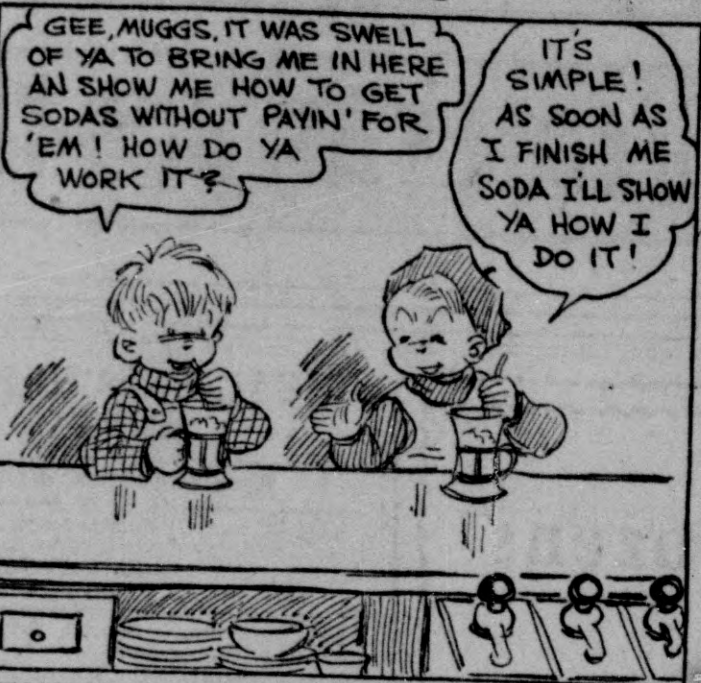

P. S.—Bobby wants ever so much to win tonight. You see, the Plaid haven't won a game from Pitt since Don Smith first donned a Panther uniform.

The new members William Pannell, George Glasser and Dutch Rose are especially asked to attend the meeting. New members will be required to enroll.

Prediction: In the not-too-distant future you'll be able to drop a penny into a slot and pull out a divorce decree with your weight and fortune printed on the back.

A recent editorial was entitled: "Secretaries of the Treasury Do What?" We know the answer. They sit up nights and guard the deficit so nobody can steal it.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

You can't see the signs of spring except in faint tracings, in the city. You have to get out beyond the paving, out past the sign posts of civilization to get the first intimations of it and yesterday afternoon was an opportunity.

Took a ride out to the quarry in Neshannock Falls where the stone for the rippaging of the Eppville-Andover highway is to come and believe it or not that was new country for us. Perhaps you know it, that is the country thereabouts. If you do, you know just what surpassingly beautiful scenery they have out there.

The quarry itself is in the bend of the Neshannock, another freak formation left by the Glacier when it drifted down this way. Apparently it was feeling out of sorts the day it came along or the century perhaps, and gouged out a gulley using a T square for a model. On each side of the creek was piled the finest kind of silica sand stone that has been used extensively in this section for building.

Years ago Neshannock Falls was quite a place. There was a hotel there and the stone business was booming. There was a cavern discovered back in the quarry workings and in the cavern was found a host of arrows, flint heads, tomahawks and other implements used by the Indians for striking out their opponents.

Somewhere in the past few years the Neshannock Valley has lost some of its appeal as a summer camping spot, to the Slippery Rock Valley. Yet the Neshannock offers some lovely views, good camping spots, and quietude from the noise of the town. Some day we'll have to get back into those hills and do a job of hiking.

Not that it will make any difference on your grocery bill, but a reader informs us that George S. Kaufmann, the playwright who wrote such hits as "Of Thee I Sing," "Dinner at Eight" and a host of others, is a former New Castle resident.

The information is that he lived on Croton Avenue as a boy. Later he went to Pittsburgh where he was a newspaper man, and now the gentleman is cleaning up some $7000 per week, which is a trifle better than some of the rest of us are doing, thank you.

Somebody sent this clipping in from a Miami paper. The "this" is a paragraph to the effect that the police there have ruled that men bathers need wear only "trunks" while sunning or swimming. The question now seems to be whether they must be four or six wheeled.

Flash! The Poet Laureate of the Slippery Rock has come to life after several days quiescence. It did appear that he had gotten lost in Grindstone Hollow or the flood waters had carried him down to the Connoquenessing but the rumors have been exaggerated. Here's the offering to today:

there's magic in the morning air; there's magic in the night, there's signs on every tree and bush, some well marked and some slight, there's promise in the running brook, the spring's about to break, and as for me, just let it come for everything is jake.

The highwater of the past few days has a lot of the boys reminiscing about the flood of 1913, or are you that old. That was a flood as was a flood. When the Shenango and Neshannock nearly shook hands at Mercer and Washington, when boats were the mode of travel down Washington street, and every cellar along the main stream was full.

Police Recover Stolen Chickens But Don't Know About Egg Supply

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Mar. 17.—Mount Lebanon police today were looking for the owners of alleged stolen property. In the meanwhile, they were acting as amateur poultry farmers.

It all came about when they arrested Norman Brasecker on a suspicious person charge. He had 18 chickens in his automobile, when the officers stopped him.

So far, 14 eggs have been acquired by the department—but they can't decide whether they can be called stolen property or not.

Coyne is charged with having killed the girl, Irene Cabert Coyne, at the wedding party in her home. Coyne arrived too late to prevent the ceremony.

TELLS OF QUAKE

March 15, 1933. Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Friend Rentz: Enclosed please find a brief account of the earthquake of Friday, March 10.

Believe it may be of some interest to your residents who have relatives living in Southern California. Sincerely yours, W. GEORGE HUNTER.

In the New Castle News of Saturday evening, March 11, I see where you received several wires stating there "was little or no damage in Los Angeles"—from the earthquake of Friday.

I beg to take exceptions to these telegrams and state here that the property loss will run into several million dollars. Many of the fine school buildings were totally wrecked and these will have to be razed as they are considered unsafe. The old city hall has been condemned as unsafe and is to be torn down. The new city hall, completed only a short time ago, and which was said by the architects who planned and built it that it was earthquake proof, has several very bad cracks on the ninth floor and it may have to be rebuilt.

The big Biltmore Hotel where Fred Rentz and many New Castle people have stopped, did not escape damage—on the 5th street side large chunks of masonry were chipped off and on the Grand street side three of the big plate glass windows were shattered to smithereens.

Six or seven of the biggest bank buildings had all their plate glass windows completely ruined. Nearly all the glass on the upper windows of Walker's big department store was shattered or broken so badly they had to be replaced.

There were at least a dozen people in Los Angeles who lost their lives and scores more who were badly injured.

I was sitting at my desk in my apartment in the Hotel Floyd when at 5:55 p. m. I was shaken almost off my seat. I knew it was an earthquake as I have been through them before. I started for the door but it was hard to stand up for the building was swaying from side to side just like a vessel at sea. I got down the stairs by holding to the side rail and reached the street which was full of badly frightened men and women. We kept away from the sidewalks and huddled in the middle of the street. Just across from my hotel I, one of the old pioneer churches and the fancy turrets all fell with a crash. There must have been tons of it. Our hotel escaped any serious damage with the exception of some bad cracks in the walls.

The shakes continued all night, about a half an hour apart. I did not retire until 2 a. m., but the quakes kept me awake.

The press dispatches have told you all about the terrible loss of life at Long Beach and Compton. The property loss in those two towns will run up to 50 million dollars.

Los Angeles, Long Beach and in fact all Southern California has received a serious setback from which it will take years to recover. Telegraphic reports from Los Angeles have been more or less censored. Harry Chandler, multimillionaire owner of the "Morning Times" and William Randolph Hearst, another millionaire publisher who owns the "Morning-Express" and the "Evening Herald and Express" don't care to have the outside world know just how bad this earthquake was.

Los Angeles is on the "earthquake belt" which extends from Japan, down the Pacific and extends underneath all the coast cities.

W. GEORGE HUNTER.

FORFEIT GAME

After strenuous drill and much hard work, the New Wilmington volunteer firemen's basketball team was a disappointed five when the Sandy Lake fire-fighters failed to arrive for a scheduled game at the college gym on Tuesday evening. The Sandy Lakers had previously defeated the local firemen and our fire-fighters were "rarin' to go. No word has been received from the Sandy Lake team as yet, so the game will undoubtedly be forfeited in favor of the local volunteers.
